

Videos about Autism Spectrum Disorders

Watching a video about a subject is often much more rewarding and educational than reading it. In addition, it can also be more fun! There are lots of videos out there that educate parents and children about Autism Spectrum Disorders, although some videos are better than others. We have collected some of the best videos here. Check out the links below, which are regularly updated by our team at South County Child and Family Consultants. Pay careful attention to which videos are designed for kids, tweens, teens, and adults.
