

Pediatrician Resources

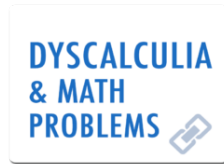

This directory provides pediatricians with free, useful information on pediatric psychiatric and neuro-psychological issues, including printable articles doctors may give to children and parents.

How to use these materials

SCFC encourages you to share this material freely. You may customize these handouts for your professional practice. Please leave our identifying footer intact. A detailed description of the ways you can utilize our library of materials is here.

Printable Handouts on Childhood Psychiatric Issues

What is a Neuropsychological Evaluation?

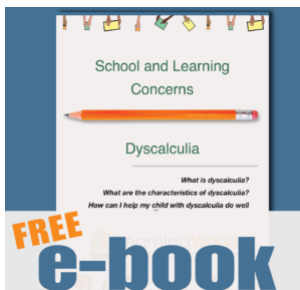

Below are printable and sharable articles about neuropsychological testing, reading neuropsych reports, a glossary of terms, and sharable articles that provide context and understanding of the neuropsychological and executive functioning evaluation process.

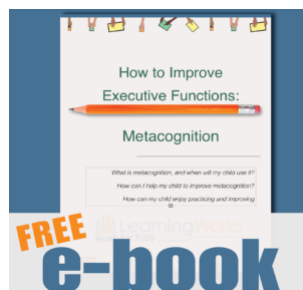

» For Kids & Teens! « Videos & Online Resources

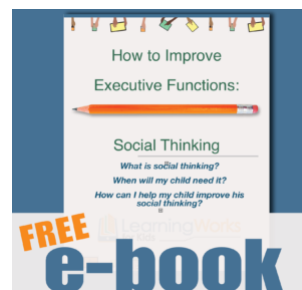

Download E-Books for Parents & Pediatricians

School & Learning Concerns

Metacognition

Social Thinking

Response Inhibition

More Links to Help Parents

Help Your Child Succeed at School!

Check out our live, online Study Skills and Executive Function Courses now!

Learn More

COMPREHENSIVE CONTENT INDEX Article Listings by Keyword, Title, Category, Date

<https://vimeo.com/102616073>

South County Child and Family Consultants are pediatric neuropsychologists in Rhode Island, providing comprehensive neuropsychological testing and evaluations.